Public Works Report – Manager Stoltman mentioned that Public Works Director Jason Bock is on vacation. There was not an update from the Public Works Department.

Presentation with Grand Futures – Teresa Cantwell introduced herself and wanted to thank the Board for allowing her group of students to present the organization they are a part of. A total of 5 students spoke about the group called UpRISE. Madison Jump spoke first among her peers and wanted to give a brief description of the club. UpRISe is a group set to investigate youth participation in tobacco, especially vaping. This group is set out to study how the tobacco industry targets the youth. The main goal of this group is to decrease youth substance use and abuse. Hopefully they will be able to empower young people to make healthy, positive, and substance free choices. The group is also working on finding more recreational programs in Kremmling to keep students out of trouble and control the tobacco usage among them. Rose Gamblin with the Wellness Center said she plans on working with this group and hopefully can help come up with activities within the Wellness Center for the teens.

Discussion with Ranch Creek Waste – Brian and Brent from Ranch Creek Waste came to the Board for an update and to answer any questions or concerns. Manager Stoltman wanted everyone to know that Town Hall has had fewer calls regarding missed trash and overall calls from the public. He feels as if Ranch Creek Waste goes above and beyond for the residents. Manager Stoltman is confident in Ranch Creek Waste. Tara Sharp spoke on behalf of a public output. She has been extremely impressed with the service that she has been receiving from the trash company. A few members on the Board had some concerns and would like to see more accountability, but overall seemed very pleased with the positive changes.

Resolution 2020-2-02- A resolution of the Board of Trustees authorizing a mail ballot election.
